Larrain y Asociados advised Banco del Estado de Chile in the negotiation, structuring and closing of the financing.

Banco del Estado de Chile granted a financing to Sociedad Concesionaria Aeropuerto de Arica S.A., a company part of Sacyr Group and winner of the public work concession Aeropuerto Chacalluta de Arica, for an approximate amount of US $ 67,493 670 (UF 1,810,000), and whose purpose is to finance the construction and maintenance of the new works of the aforementioned airport in the city of Arica (north of Chile).

The financing was structured through the signing of a financing opening contract, guaranteed with the pledge of concession, certain commitments assumed by the shareholders of the concessionaire company and other usual additional guarantees for this type of transaction.

Larrain y Asociados advised Banco del Estado de Chile with partner Patricio Montes (Picture), associates Diego Garay, Michelle Inzunza and Teresita Vinagre.

Sacyr in-house lawyer Antonia Silva advised on the matter.
