Dispute resolution

Larrain y Asociados is recognized for its involvement in important commercial, civil, labor, bankruptcy, tax, and administrative disputes. With notable strengths in the construction, mining, energy and public works sectors, the team provides skills in the infrastructure sectors arising from disputes either between contractors and construction companies or concessionaries and constructions companies.

The firm is home to four Benchmark Latin America litigation stars, including Carlos Aravena, José Pedro Baraona, Pedro Zelaya and Víctor Manuel Avilés. Avilés is an expert in energy and tax disputes. He represents Minera Altos de Punitaqui Limitada in a tax case regarding depreciation for tax purposes. Zelaya is active in civil, commercial and arbitration proceedings. He recently represented San Sebastian Inmobiliaria in two suits in protection of collective interests filed by SENARC, AIM FUTBOL. Zelaya works alongside Baraona in the representation of Corporación de Fomento de la Producción (CORFO) agency in a lawsuit over the property of a strategic land. Aravena manages a practice dedicated to litigation and arbitration concerning construction contracts, public works concessions and infrastructure and sports law.
