Vicuña Abogados advised Comfrut, while Larrain y Asociados advised Banco Consorcio on the deal.

Banco Consorcio closed a financing for an approximate amount of US $13,320,000 granted to Comfrut S.A., a company specialized in the packaging of frozen fruit, and its commercialization and export.

The purpose of the financing was to finance the acquisition of a new plant for the production and processing of frozen fruit located in the city of Curicó, and is guaranteed with a set of assets on which mortgages and pledges were constituted without displacement in favor of Banco Consorcio.

The Larrain y Asociados team included Partner Patricio Montes (Picture), Associates Diego Garay and Michelle Inzunza.
