

Codelco desalination plant obtains funds

Lily Squires
19 April 2023

 Print article

Credit: Shutterstock/Luciano Santandreu

Four Norton Rose Fulbright offices and Larrain y Asociados in Santiago have helped a company controlled by Japanese conglomerate Marubeni and Chilean transmission business Transelec obtain project financing to build a desalination plant in northern Chile, a project that will supply water to state-owned mining company Codelco.