The financing includes a series of safeguards and usual guarantees for this type of operation.

Valle Grande is a business and residential hub designed to combine work and lifestyle, with a major focus on incorporating the area's natural surroundings to create a mixture of urban and rural landscapes.

The project includes an industrial and logistics park designed to attract investment from companies, and residential housing that is available for purchase for families looking to relocate to the area.

Banco Security was advised on the structuring and negotiation of the loan by Chilean law firm Larrain y Asociados, with a team led by partners Diego Garay and Patricio Montes, with associates Ana María Sepúlveda and Valentina Ravera.

Banco Security's in-house legal team comprised Paluska Solar and Rodolfo Bennewitz.

Centro de Negocios Valle Grande SpA's in-house legal team was led by María Camila Silva.
