

Kiva Refugee Investment Fund provides $2m financing to Liquitech

Posté le 25 nov. 2024

Kiva uses crowdfunded microloans as a force for good, creating a space where people can have one-to-one impact, and together, expand financial access for all.

Kiva serves borrowers in more than 70 countries on five continents and is headquartered in San Francisco, with offices in Nairobi and Bogotá, and staff stationed around the world.

The financing was structured through a loan and guarantee agreement, subject to the laws of the State of New York, backed in turn by a bond and co-debt subject to Chilean law and a promissory note also subject to Chilean law.

The transaction successfully closed on November 13, 2024.

Chilean law firm Larrain y Asociados advised Kiva Refugee Investment Fund on the financing.

The firm did not provide a list of its counsel that advised Kiva Refugee Fund.
